Medical Practice

Community Health Nurse

60.8 hours per fortnight (0.8 FTE)
Fixed Term- 12 months

Join our Primary Health Team at Bendigo Community Health Services (BCHS)!

We are seeking a compassionate and motivated Practice Nurse to provide high-quality clinical nursing services within our Medical Practice team. This rewarding role supports health assessments, chronic disease management, vaccination programs, patient care planning, and health promotion initiatives, helping to improve health outcomes across our community.

About the Role

- Deliver clinical nursing services in a community-focused medical practice.
- Conduct health assessments and contribute to chronic disease care planning.
- Support vaccination clinics and preventative health programs.
- Participate in quality improvement activities and accreditation requirements.
- Maintain accurate clinical documentation and reporting.
- Work collaboratively with multidisciplinary teams and external stakeholders.

About You

- Registered Nurse with current AHPRA registration.
- Experience in primary health care, general practice, or community nursing.
- Strong clinical, communication, and organisational skills.
- Commitment to person-centred care and health promotion principles.
- Ability to work both independently and as part of a supportive team.

At BCHS, you'll be part of a values-driven organisation committed to improving community health and wellbeing. We offer a supportive work environment, professional development opportunities, and the chance to make a meaningful difference every day.

Apply today and help us deliver accessible, high-quality healthcare to our community.
